Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia, sitting in Chancery.

Christopher Adams, complainant, James Gothrie,

Amos Adams, Isaac N. Comstock, Defendants. Samuel Byington, and Richard Wallach, THIS bill of complaint in the above stated cause states, that the said complainant, on or about the twenty-fifth day of November. A. D., 1851, entered into a contract with the United States government Dec 7-3taw2wif agreeing to supply the government with five mil-List of Rejected and suspended Pensions, with he reasons for the rejection or suspension.

Hon of brick for the extension the 12th day of January. A. D. 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong, the said contract; the said Strong agreeing an promising to pay to said complainant the sum of our thousand dollars. The bill further states that the said Strong, or or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, assigned the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, of the city of Albany and State of New York, and received fro the said Adams and Comstock their obligation of promise for the payment of four thousand dollars, or thereabout, as well as a lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract, until the said sum of four thousand dollars should be paid which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The bill further states that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock as-signed their right, title, and interest in the contract to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate of Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wallach having notice of the said lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract. The object of said bill is to obtain an injunction against said defendants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from paying the said moneys to any of the defendants, or their representatives, and the defend-ants and their representatives from receiving the said moneys until the sum of thirty-six hundred dollars, and the interest thereon, should be paid to the complainant or his legal representatives, and such other and further decree as to this country, having travelled here while he bore court shall seem right and proper. The said Amos Adams and the said Isaac N. Comstock, named in the caption and body of the bill, still residing in cess of the court.

It is, therefore, by the court ordered this 1st day of January, A. D. 1855, that the matters and things stated in the aforesaid bill of complaint against the defendants, shall be taken for coned against the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, and such decree made in the premises against them, and each of them, as the court shall deem right, unless the said defendants appear in the court on or before the second Mon-day in May next, and answer the said bill, and show cause if any they have why a decree as prayed for by the complainant should not be passed by the court.

Provided the complainant cause this order, and the substance and the object of the said bill of complaint, to be published in some newspaper i the city of Washington, twice a week successive weeks, the first insertion thereof to appear at least four months before the second londay in May next.

Given at rules, the first Monday of January, 1855, being the first day of January, 1855.
